WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION AND CLARIFICATION OF COMMISSION ORDER
REGARDING WESTERN WIRELESS' BASIC UNIVERSAL SERVICE OFFERING IN KANSAS

WT Docket No. 00-239

Comment Date: October 16, 2002

Reply Comment Date: October 31, 2002

On September 3, 2002, the State Independent Alliance and the Independent Telecommunications Group filed a Petition for Reconsideration and Clarification (Independents' Reconsideration Petition), seeking reconsideration and clarification of the Commission's Memorandum Opinion and Order (BUS Order) holding that Western Wireless' Basic Universal Service (BUS) offering in Kansas is a Commercial Mobile Radio Service (CMRS).¹ In that order, the Commission concluded that (1) BUS is a CMRS offering; (2) Kansas may not regulate BUS entry or rates and may not require equal access for telephone toll services, although it may regulate the other terms and conditions of BUS; and (3) Western Wireless is not subject to federal regulation as a LEC with respect to the BUS offering.

The Independents' Reconsideration Petition seeks reconsideration of the Commission's decisions in the BUS Order that (1) Western Wireless' BUS offering is a mobile rather than a fixed offering and therefore classified as CMRS; and (2) BUS is a CMRS offering because it is ancillary, auxiliary, or incidental to CMRS. The Independents' Reconsideration Petition also seeks clarification that the Commission did not adopt the finding in the BUS Order that BUS meets the statutory definition of mobile service because two of the Commissioners did not support that conclusion. Finally, the Independents' Reconsideration Petition seeks clarification of the BUS Order regarding whether Kansas is prohibited from establishing equal access as a condition of receipt of Kansas universal service funds.

August 2, 2002) (BUS Order).

Pursuant to Section 1.1206(a)(3), declaratory ruling proceedings are conducted as non-restricted, “permit-but-disclose” proceedings under the Commission’s ex parte rules.² Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentations must contain summaries of the substance of the presentations and not merely a listing of the subjects discussed. More than a one or two sentence description of the views and arguments presented is generally required.³ Other rules pertaining to ex parte presentations in permit-but-disclose proceedings are set forth in Section 1.1206(b) of the Commission’s rules.⁴
